

COURSE OUTLINE SEPTEMBER 2023 INTAKE

CHC43515 - CERTIFICATE IV IN MENTAL HEALTH PEER WORK (CONSUMER)

Developed by Orygen, a global leader in youth mental health, the Certificate IV in Mental Health Peer Work (Consumer) prepares students for roles across many mental health programs, formally acknowledging a professional application of mental health lived experience.

Students will be trained by, and access resources prepared by, accomplished industry experts, supporting them to receive high quality education with the latest and most current industry knowledge.

This is a nationally approved vocational course that is recognised throughout Australia.

COURSE AIMS

Students will gain skills and knowledge in the following areas:

- Providing consumer mental health peer work (including applying lived experience)
- Evidence-based mental health frameworks, standards, and practices underpinning the role of a peer worker
- Working with people from diverse backgrounds, including First Nations peoples
- Work health and safety in the mental health sector

Please see the units of competency for the specific units covered in the course.

COURSE STRUCTURE

The course will be approximately 10 months in duration and students will take part in:

- 41 interactive virtual workshops (6 hours per week)

CREDIT TRANSFER (CT)

Credit Transfers (CT) is the procedure of granting credit to a student for studies successfully completed at another Registered Training Organisation. Students will be required to provide a formal transcript to demonstrate successful completion.

If a student already has academic credit for any of the course units, Orygen can award a credit transfer. To access this, the student must complete a credit transfer application. Please note that while there are no additional costs to access this option, students will still be required to pay the full tuition costs.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

Recognition of prior learning (RPL) is the transfer of skills and knowledge, through work and life experiences, to current training courses.

If a student wishes to have skills and experiences recognised as an academic credit, they can apply to have it assessed and considered when assessing their level of competency. Please note that while there are no additional costs to apply for RPL, students will still be required to pay the full tuition costs.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Orygen will provide students with general technical and academic support throughout the entirety of their course, including reasonable accommodations should the student request it. This may include but is not limited to support sessions, paper assessments and extensions. If reasonable accommodations are needed, please let Orygen know on the enrolment application, or advise staff.

Orygen acknowledges the Traditional Owners of the lands we are on and pays respect to their Elders past and present. Orygen recognises and respects their cultural heritage, beliefs and relationships to Country, which continue to be important to the First Nations people living today.
